

Please allow and encourage public debate regarding the rule changes over ownership of television stations and our airwaves. Further, let all American see the language of the rule change. We the people own the airwaves not a few wealthy people and companies.